Proudly Present

SIR WINSTON LEONARD SPENCER CHURCHILL
P. C., C. H., T. D., M. P.

We have great pride & pleasure in offering for sale this collection of The Work of Sir Winston Spencer Churchill, together with material & ephemera relating to him, and a large section of Biographical works, from full-scale down to single chapters, and a large assortment of books containing quotations from his speeches, & references, some critical, some trivial, some very important, but all helping the historian of the present. and more particularly the historian of the future to evaluate the the kind of man he was, and the kind of times he not only lived in and served but also – at a most critical period in the history of the modern world – dominated & led, despite all the wailings & ominous remonstrances – from almost utter defeat to an overwhelming and to an ultimate triumph.

Novelist – historian – wit – painter “ Extraordinary ” – bricklayer – soldier – Parliamentarian without parallel – was there ever a man like him? Ever a man who in circumstances which gave him the major role of a victorious leader, refused the temptation to usurp the role of Dictator? We venture to think not, and in this we feel that this was his finest achievement. Certainly modern history – and perhaps even more important – recent history can find none to match him. “ Take him for all in all , we shall not look on his like again. ”

We offer here then, 1580 items containing a wealth of material & much not previously recorded. There are no fewer than Nine Inscribed Presentation copies, Two Signed Limited Editions, (one virtually unique – & a batch of Authograph & typed Letters signed etc., Also present are the actual Medallions & Cigarette Cards which were on Display at the New York World's Fair “ Winston Churchill Pavilion, and a wealth of other items.

PRICE FOR THE COLLECTION :

£5. 500

SECOND WORLD WAR. U. S. A. Edition.

The amazing demand for the writings of Churchill, the different tie-ups with associate publishing and distributing houses made the printing of this massive work beyond the capacity of even the largest of printing houses, and the work was therefore distributed among several Printing Firms, resulting in the eight variant imprints we have managed to classify. These may not however be the sum total of all that were issued.

The Publishers, in a letter in answer to a query for information on this point – state: “The six volumes of this title represent a bibliographical nightmare. We published these six volumes in different years, simultaneously with the Book-Of-the Month Club..... The Book-Of-The-Month Club used three manufacturers at this time: H.Wolff Mfg. Co., The Haddon Craftsmen, The Kingsport Press, Inc. Four set of identical plates were used. The first edition could be considered any one of these sets at either the Riverside Press or the three manufacturers for the Book-of-the Month Club

The Library Of Congress states: “.....I hasten to point out that the Library of Congress number found on the verso of the title-page of current American books is no indication that the book so marked is a first edition.

This division of the Library contains one copy of Winston Churchill's The War Years. This is the edition printed at the Riverside Press for Houghton Mifflin.....”

A VIRTUALLY UNIQUE COPY . Of the 600 copies of this special edition (which contains material not included in the ordinary or Commercial Edition) 100 were specially set aside for H. R. H. The Prince of Wales [later King Edward VIII, &, after The Duke of Windsor], & which were held in " his gift." These were signed by the Contributors., and only these!

The owner of this copy - undeterred by this, managed to obtain the signatures of most of the contributors, until he was ultimately prevented from completing his project by a letter signed by the Editor, H. Cotton Minchin, and another signed by Lionel Halsey of St. James's Palace, and both these letters are inserted in this copy.

The Contributors whose signatures were thus obtained & are inscribed on the half -title page, are Winston S. Churchill, John Galsworthy, A.E. Coppard, Arnold Bennett, Margaret Kennedy, J. C. Squire, John Drinkwater, Edgar Wallace, Gilbert Murray, Hilaire Belloc, G. K. Chesterton, Victoria Sackville-West, Walter De La Mare, F. Tennyson Jesse, W. H. Davies, Laurence Binyon, Sheila Kaye-Smith, Edmund Blunden, Humbert Wolfe, whilst Hugh Walpole has inscribed his signature at the head of his contribution on page 6; Sarah Gertrude Millin has sent a letter signed, and Laurence Binyon has sent a signature on British Museum notepaper, dated " March 1930" These are inserted at their appropriate place.

AUTOGRAPH LETTERS SIGNED, &c.,

EIGHT TYPED LETTERS SIGNED, to HARRY GREEN, American Actor/Comedian,

210 (i) TYPED LETTER, SIGNED, Chartwell. 1 pp. 13 July 1946.

Sending a promised photograph: He was immensely entertained the other night by Green's marvellous display [a conjuring performance ; Green was a gifted amateur] and he is hoping to have another meeting as soon as he can contrive it.....etc

211 (ii) TYPED LETTER, COMMENCED & SIGNED. from 28 Hyde Park Gate, S.W. 7. February 12, 1947.

The letter commences "My Dear Harry Green " and is signed in full. He is deeply grateful for a copy of the first edition of Gulliver's Travels which will always be preserved in his library. He is also reading it again. Thank him also for Lord Cockburn's Memoirs. He is Green's debtor for so much entertainment and courtesy.....etc.,

212 (iii) TYPED LETTER, COMMENCED , ENDED & SIGNED, from 28 Hyde Pk. gate. Feb 12 1947. 1 p. Qto.

Commencing "Dear Mr. Harry Green " & ending "Yours Sincerely, / Winston S. Churchill." Thanking Green for an invitation to dine on the occasion of the second anniversary of his play. But , Alas, they will not be in London on that day and are unable to accept the invitation which it has given great pleasure to receive.....&c.,

13 (iv) TYPED NOTE, SIGNED from 28 Hyde Park Gate, March 8. 1948. 1 p. Qto.

He is unable to accept an invitation as his wife has already made plans to take him to see Green's friend. The letter ends "Yours sinc/ly / Winston S. Churchill. "

14 (v) TYPED NOTE COMMENCED, ENDED & SIGNED. From 28 Hyde Park Gate, May 26th 1948. 1 p. Qto.

Thanking for a letter of May 19, but prize fighting is not in his line. He is glad to know that Green's son is getting on so well at Harrow.....&c.
Ending: "Yours sinly / Winston S. Churchill. "

- 215 (vi) TYPED LETTER, SIGNED, from Chartwell, " 27 " December, 1948, 1 p .
Qto.
 Thanking warmly for christmas gifts. He is delighted with the picture, but [we] have not yet carved the smoked turkey so he cannot tell him exactly how good it is.....He has signed his book with pleasure and also a copy of his newly published book " Painting As A Pastime " * which he hopes Green will accept as a small Christmas token.....etc.,
 * N.B. This book is in the collection.
- 216 (vii) TYPED LETTER, COMMENCED, ENDED & SIGNED, 1 p., Qto. on paper die-stamped PRIME MINISTER, 10 Downing Street, Whitehall, S.W.1 .
 Commencing " Dear Mr. Green " ending " yours sin/ly / Winston S. Churchill. " & dated "16" March 1952.
 He is interested to know about the work of the Variety Club of Great Britain, and complimented that [they] should wish me to be the guest of honour at one of your fortnightly luncheons. Alas. owing to the extreme pressure of his commitments and engagements, he does not feel he can add to them, even in the agreeable way [Green] suggests.....&c.,
- 217 (viii) TYPED LETTER, SIGNED, on PRIME MINISTER, 10 Downing Street die-stamped paper, " 7 " February, 1954.
Thanking..... for your renewed invitation to lunch with the Variety Club of Great Britain. He has carefully considered this, but he fears that his commitments are just as heavy as they were when invited two years before, and he does not therefore think that he can have the pleasure of accepting the invitation, much as he would like to do.....&c. signed;
" Yours Sincerely/ Winston S. Churchill."

BOOKS ON CHURCHILL

Including full-length biographies, chapters concerned solely with him or his work, and books containing references to him or his work &/or quotations from his speeches and his works. In any assessment of a great man, his work, & his times, every reference, & every phase of his life & activities are of the greatest significance, and even scraps of gossip may help to shed a little light where otherwise a darkness may be all that seems to shew. We hope that this collection will prove to be someday significant.

1570 WELLS (H. G.) THE TIME MACHINE. An Invention. London: (Heinemann). 1895. First Edition. 8vo. Original beige buckram, pictorially blocked & titled in light mauve. Covers a little stained, spine light-faded, else a good copy. A rather unique association copy. On the inner cover is the bookplate of Maurice Baring, designed by Hilaire Belloc. Pasted on the loose end-paper, a brief Auto-graph note, undated from the Author H.G. Wells to Maurice Baring "Dear Maurice / I want my boy Gip - who / will be in London from June to August next, to / have about 2 hours a week reading & conversation with / a Russian Do you know anyone who will / come to St. James's Court for that? / Yrs H. G. Wells." It will be recalled that Baring was deeply interested in things Russian, and the hint is patently obvious, more especially as Baring was living - at the time - within a stone's throw of the hotel. On the half-title is an inscription "Maurice Baring from Nan Lucas." On the title-page, in Clementine Churchill's had is the inscription "Bron Herbert / from Winston / Churchill."

Additional Addenda, and price for the entire collection, on the inner front cover.
